

FUND STRATEGY

The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing in the common stocks of small and mid-cap companies which have the potential to deliver above-average long-term earnings growth, in which earnings and sales growth, valuation, and profitability are assessed through fundamental-based research. The Fund looks for companies which are market leaders in growth industries, have a strong brand name, and whose sales and earnings have increased at a consistent rate. The investment approach includes the analysis of company financial statements in addition to meeting with corporate managements.

Performance data quoted represents past performance and does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The performance assumes reinvestment of capital gains and dividends. Fund performance current to the most recent month-end may be lower or higher than the performance quoted and can be obtained by calling 1-800-697-3863 or visiting www.tocquevillefunds.com.

^The Advisor has contractually agreed to waive management fees and/or reimburse expenses in order to ensure that the Fund's expense ratio does not exceed 1.25% (excluding taxes, interest expense, acquired fund fees and expenses, or extraordinary expenses such as litigation) until at least 3/1/2021. In the absence of these fee waivers, total returns would be lower.

Performance for periods before 10/12/10 is for The Tocqueville Small Cap Fund, which was renamed The Tocqueville Opportunity Fund on 10/12/10. The Tocqueville Small Cap Fund had different Portfolio Managers until 7/1/10 and different investment objectives and strategies until 10/12/10.

Calendar Year Returns

QUARTERLY UPDATE

- In the 1st quarter of 2020, the Fund declined 14.53% after fees and outperformed the Russell 2500® Growth Index which declined 23.22%. Both the Fund and the benchmark had negative returns during the period as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.
- The COVID-19 pandemic is having a profound and negative impact on the world economy. While the long-lasting effects from this virus have yet to be fleshed out, we believe the strategy of investing in issuers with durable business models which are tethered to secular growth opportunities will pay significant dividends in the years ahead. These issuers typically have strong balance sheets to withstand temporary macroeconomic shocks and can continue to reinvest capital which should increase their competitive advantage versus peers.
- Information Technology, Consumer Discretionary, Industrials, and Healthcare provided the leading relative performance during the quarter. The Fund held no energy or utilities investments throughout the period; this lack of exposure added 9 basis points to relative performance.
- Investments in OKTA, Dexcom, 1Life Healthcare, Safehold, and Veeva Systems were the leading contributors on an absolute and relative basis. Detractions from performance included investments in Paylocity, Paycom Software, Global Payments, Workday, and WEX. Despite the underperformance we remain confident in these businesses over the long term.
- At quarter's end, the Top 10 and Top 50 investments comprised 43% and 84% of the Fund respectively, versus 37% and 81% the prior quarter.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

P/E: The weighted average of the price/earnings (P/E) ratios of the equity securities referenced. The P/E ratio is calculated by dividing the current price of the stock by the trailing earnings per share for the past 12 months.

The Russell 2500 Growth Index measures the performance of the small to mid-cap growth segment of the U.S. equity universe. It includes those Russell 2500 companies with higher price-to-book ratios and higher forecasted growth values. You cannot invest directly in an index.

The Morningstar Mid Cap Growth Portfolios feature firms that are projected to grow faster than other mid-cap stocks. The U.S. mid cap range for market capitalization typically falls between $1 billion and $8 billion and represents 20% of the total capitalization of the U.S. equity market. Growth is defined based on fast growth (high growth rates for earnings, sales, book value, and cash flow) and high valuations (high price ratios and low dividend yields).

DISCLOSURES

On November 1, 2019, a new portfolio manager of the Tocqueville Opportunity Fund was designated by the Adviser.

Mutual Fund investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. The Fund invests in smaller companies, which involve additional or special risks such as small companies rely on limited product lines, financial resources and business activities that may make them more susceptible than larger companies to setbacks or downturns; and small cap stocks are less liquid and more thinly traded which make them more volatile than stocks of larger companies.

The Tocqueville Mutual Funds may be offered only to persons in the United States. This literature should not be considered a solicitation or offering of any investment products or services to investors residing outside of the United States.
